

IMPACT OF VIOLENCE & TRAUMA IN OUR COMMUNITY BUILDING EFFECTIVE COMMUNITY SOLUTIONS CONFERENCE

August 29 - 30, 2011
Del Mar Hilton
Del Mar, California

Do you want to learn more about violence and trauma and how they are impacting communities?

Specifically targeting the areas of:
Trauma Informed Care, Domestic Violence,
Gangs & Bullying

You are invited to attend a statewide conference designed to maximize attendee participation through interactive and creative presentations, deepening the dialogue across systems and communities by building new partnerships, learning about innovative approaches and much more.

Who Should Attend:

Due to the multidisciplinary nature of this work, professionals from the fields of mental health, domestic violence, violence prevention, child welfare, probation, law enforcement, attorneys, substance abuse, nurses, and K-16 education would benefit from attending this conference.

Why You Should Attend:

- Learn about culturally proficient strategies as they relate to the prevention of violence and trauma across the lifespan
- Renew your commitment to cross-sector collaborations
- Reenergize your focus on your own health and wellness
- Explore and learn about prevention strategies and tools that consider the unique needs of every community
- Leave with new information on meaningful ways to integrate evidence informed practices beyond the conference and into your community

Space is limited...
We expect to reach capacity so please
Register NOW!

There is NO cost to attend, but you MUST register.

Your registration is not complete until you receive a confirmation email.

CEUs will be available for Social Workers (BBS), Nurses (BRN), Attorneys (MCLE) and Alcohol and Substance Abuse Counselors (CAADAC). See page 3 for details.

Don't miss hearing our incredible line up of cutting edge leaders in their field

Keynote Presenter—Azim Khamisa

“Overcoming the Impact of Violence: Destination Peace”

Author, activist and nationally recognized inspirational speaker. Following the murder of his only son Tariq in 1995 through a senseless, gang-related incident, Azim chose the path of forgiveness and compassion rather than revenge, and this amazing choice led to the establishment of the Tariq Khamisa Foundation and his subsequent forgiveness work which has reached millions through international speaking.

Additional Speakers Include:

Dr. Jeff Rowe - Supervising Psychiatrist for the Children's Mental Health Services of the Behavioral Health Division of the County of San Diego's Health and Human Services Agency

Dr. Dawn Griffin - President of the Domestic Violence Council. Forensic Psychologist and Program Director of the Department of Undergraduate Psychology CSPP, Alliant International University.

Charles Wilson, MSSW - Executive Director of the Chadwick Center for Children and Families and the Sam and Rose Stein Endowed Chair in Child Protection at Children's Hospital-San Diego

Dr. Marc Sedwitz - Chief of Staff & Trauma Surgeon, Scripps Memorial Hospital La Jolla

Presentations include provocative topics, evidence informed strategies & programs to include:

Domestic Violence101

Trauma Informed Care

Gang Prevention and Intervention

Bullying Prevention

Thriving, Healthy Relationships in Violent-free Environments (THRIVE)

LGBTQ Bullying and Cyber Bullying

Elder Abuse: From Protection to Prevention and Responses

Note: You will be sent a request to pick workshops before the event.

Be sure to stay for the Closing Plenary:

Youth Voice Presentation

Through public speaking, community advocacy and activism, and youth leadership roles, Youth Voice provides a sanctuary for inner city youth to recognize their unlimited potential to influence policy and serve as change.
